

County of Santa Clara, CA

Deputy Director of Parks and Recreation

Annual salary $106,733 - $136,911 DOQ

Plus executive management benefit package.

Filing deadline: Open until filled.

Located at the southern end of the San Francisco Bay Area, Santa Clara County is the most populous county in the Bay Area, and one of the most affluent counties in the country. With headquarters in Los Gatos, the County Parks and Recreation Department includes twenty-eight parks with a 46,000-acre park system encompassing a variety of exceptional urban and rural recreational amenities. Reporting to the Director of Parks and Recreation, the Deputy Director manages the Maintenance and Operations Divisions of the Department including the Interpretive, Natural Resource Management, Environmental Health and Safety Compliance, and Outdoor Recreation Programs. The Deputy Director directly supervises two management analysts, with shared support of an executive assistant. Department resources include 204 permanent employees, 30 to 40 seasonal employees, and an operating budget of $46 million.

The ideal candidate will be an experienced parks/natural resources management professional with excellent interpersonal and stakeholder relationship skills, political acumen, and a strong commitment to public service. Candidates who have experience managing in a union environment will be favorably considered. Budget and fiscal management proficiency is essential. A minimum of three (3) years of relevant experience and a Bachelor's degree required.

Applications will be reviewed as they are submitted. Preliminary screening interviews will be conducted in early January.
